I SHALL PASS THIS WAY BUT ONCE THEREFORE ANY GOOD THAT I CAN DO OR ANY KINDNESS THAT I CAN SHOW LET ME DO IT NOW FOR I SHALL NOT PASS THIS WAY AGAIN.

In a recent report Congressman William "Bill" Clay stated that there is perversion in law. I have to agree with him, when I look at the facts of the arrest of Dick Gregory who recently was arrested twice in front of the White House for staging a protest. He had been demanding an investigation of the Central Intelligence Agency for its alleged involvement in the assassination of the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King and President John Kennedy. For his trouble, Gregory was tossed in the "pokie". In pursuit of national decency and the illusive promise of democracy, he has been hauled in twice on minor technicalities pursuant to obscure laws intended for such troublemakers.

The press gave small notice. The public appeared not to be greatly disturbed. And no doubt by then Dick Gregory had long since learned that the life of a man who takes the Constitution seriously enough to fight for it can be a very lonely one. Let's face it, most citizens aren't close enough to real power to understand and be disturbed by the depth of its misuse. Others have suspicions but would rather not be involved. It's far easier to write off agitators like Dick Gregory as nuts. It's almost as easy to believe that T.V. shows like Mission Impossible and the Six Million Dollar Man are anywhere near accurate characterizations of the C.I.A. in purpose or practice.

Around the time that Gregory was being fingerprinted, C.I.A. officials and a host of other supporters were exclaiming in the press that all of the ongoing probes of C.I.A. conduct would accomplish nothing more than permanent damage to that agency's intelligence-gathering capacity and hence do indelible harm to "the national interest." Which brings us squarely to the point.

Just what has this term "national interest" come to mean in the councils of high government? Dick Gregory, the authors of the Constitution and a majority of the American people have traditionally believed that the national interest could never manifest itself in any policy which runs counter to the spirit of the Bill of Rights.

But lo and behold we now learn that the C.I.A. has a national interest of its own, bearing not the faintest relation of anybody's concept of freedom and liberty, here, in Africa, or anyplace else. It seems apparent now that our tax-supported intelligence organ has, among other things, assassinated leaders, toppled freely elected governments, installed ruthless dictatorships, conspired with Mafia operatives and induced at least one domestic suicide with L.S.D.

Dick Gregory was jailed for a minor protest infraction. Yet no C.I.A. officials have been criminally charged with anything. It would appear then that laws don't reflect the moral and social norms of a society as much as they serve the deceitful ends of the powerful.

Delta's Doing It

WOMEN OF VISION--DARING TO VENTURE GREETINGS DELTAS

WASHINGTON, D.C. -- More than 3,000 delegates will be on hand when Delta Sigma Theta, Inc., one of the country's largest public service sororities, convenes its 33rd National Convention at the Seattle Center, Seattle, Washington, August 3. It runs through August 8.

This year, "we're taking a good look at the urban environment to see what the problems are at this point and to develop approaches to their solutions," said Mrs. Lillian Benbow, National President of the 64-year-old organization.

The theme: "Women of Vision--Daring to Venture," explains Mrs. Benbow, "indicates the fact that we have the courage to move in the direction in which our research points."

The National Convention, held every two years, is the assembly of the Grand Chapter. It meets to establish Grand Chapter policy and to determine programs and procedures for the following two years. Each chapter must be represented at the Convention by one voting delegate and one alternate.

Delta has more than 75,000 members. There are 515 chapters in 45 states, the Virgin Islands, the Republic of Haiti and the Republic of Liberia, West Africa. Two hundred and twenty of the chapters are on the campuses of colleges and universities.

Highlighting this year's convention will be a "Delta Mini-University", a Career Development and Job Fair for Women; a practica with five simultaneous workshops in Economics, Communications, Education, Media and Health Care; and the World Premiere showing of "Count Down at Kusini," an action-packed movie filmed in New York and Lagos, Nigeria, starring Ruby Dee, Ossie Davis and Greg Morris, with Davis directing. The Delta supported film is being considered by Columbia Pictures for national and international distribution.

Keynote addresses will be given by Atlanta Mayor Maynard Jackson, Jewel Lafontant, former Assistant U.S. Solicitor General, and Dr. Carlton Goodlett, President of the National Newspaper Publishers Association.

The convention will open with a "Delta Gala" and will feature a special Revue by a number of Delta members in the Arts and Letters, according to Mrs. Lynnette Taylor, Executive Director. These include Novella Nelson, Barbara Anne Teer, Ruby Dee, Ella Holley and Roscoe Lee Brown and Leontine Price.

Popular singing star Leslie Uggams, also a Delta, will be bringing her revue which premiered in Australia and England, to the convention.

The Delta-produced record "Roses and Revolution" will be introduced as a convention feature. Appearing on the record are the gala stars: Roberta Flack, Lena Horne, Nikki Giovanni and others. The record, which has four sides, tells of the Black woman in poetry and song.

Seriousness will mark the tone of the convention. "We are a very serious organization," Mrs. Benbow said. "We enjoy our membership, but we are together because of our comittment which is to render public service...we seek to improve the communities in which we live and to improve ourselves. I think that's the cohesive factor that keeps us coming together.

"The organization," Mrs. Benbow continued, "is a vehicle through which we can express these concerns. While we cover the gamut, professionally -- doctors, physicists, statisticians, chemists, teachers and the like...the common bond is the desire to give public service."

Captain Edward L. Horne, Jr. was in Tacoma July21 in route to Anchorage, Alaska where he will spend 45 days TDY. Captain Horne is the Flight Commander of three C-130 Cargo Planes.

Captain Edward L. Horne, Jr is the son of the Rev. Edward L. Horne, Sr., who resides with his wife Mrs. Reola Horne, and daughter Kittrell A. Horne at 1621 South Huson Drive. Mr. Leon P. Horne, a brother who is in Summer School in Washington State, Ellensburg came home to share in a short family re-union.

Tacoma claims Captain Horne as its own. Captain Horne attended McCarver Jr. High and Stadium High. Graduated from both schools. Captain Horne was an athlete, playing basketball both in high school and in the University. He may well be remembered as the more than six feet Drum Major at Stadium High School. Captain graduated from U.P.S. He also took A.F.R.O.T.C., and was commissioned as a 2nd Lt. Upon graduation in 1970 went on active duty immediately. Captain Horne won many other honors which being the son of a minister, one would expect Captain Horne to be active in the Church. He was a member of Mt. Tabor Baptist Church, where his father Reverend Edward L. Horne was pastor.

Captain Horne is a local product who has and is doing a fine job, and we can justly take pride in our own.

Energy Conservation Means Money

PUBLIC UTILITIES representative Innis Logslett tells task force members how to save on electricity bills.

Conserving energy means money in your pocket. That is what Public Utilities representatives told the Model Cities Combined Task Force last week.

Innis Logslett, senior home economist for Tacoma's Department of Public Utilities, talked about saving money on electricity bills. She told task force members to watch their use of hot water because the hot water heater is the most expensive appliance to operate in most homes. Other appliances which use a lot of electricity include ranges, clothes dryers, self defrosting refrigerator-freezers, and freezers. Appliances which heat or cool are usually the most expensive to operate and use the most electricity.

Ms. Logslett gave several helpful hints for saving money on electricity bills. Instead of letting children search through the refrigerator for a snack causing the appliance to work harder because the door is open, she plans her children's snacks and puts a note on the door telling them to find it.

Rollin Bach, consumer services consultant, told the task force that insulating a home can save money in the long run. Insulated homes use only about half the energy that uninsulated homes use. The cost of hiring a contractor to put in insulation or doing it yourself will be returned in energy cost savings in about two to four years. Insulation also adds to the resale value of the home.

Mr. Bach said that if a significant number of people insulated their homes, it would mean long term savings for Tacoma's citizens in public utilities investments.

Several task force members asked about errors by meter readers. Mr. Bach said that errors are made from time to time, and he encouraged anyone with a question about their electricity bill or about energy conservation to call the consumer service section at 383-2471.

New Personnel Officer at MDC

By Barbara Henderson

The Metropolitian Development Council now has a new Personnel Officer, Mary Lou Finley. Ms. Finley is in the second week of her new job. She is in charge of carrying out hiring procedures for the MDC. She has taken a study program on organization and management which goes into job catagories within MDC.

Ms. Finley has been a teacher at the University of Puget Sound, where she was teaching sociology, in the women's studies department. She was also a member of the Civil Rights movement in the 1960's.

Ms. Finley will be working with career development to help people advance their skills and move up to higher levels of employment.

Her first priority is on employment and she states, "I think its a shame to have so many people unemployed, but the number of jobs are so limited and having too many people does present a problem."

She stressed that, "in order to get fulfillment out of your job, you have to enjoy what you are doing."

Ms. Finley has specified that "to be effective on your job, its important to know what you are up against."

Ms. Finley seals primarily with employment matters and enjoys working at Metropolitian Development Council. "I like my job, there are many interesting people here."

Malcolm X Center Mural Dedication

The Malcolm X Center, at 16th and "K" Streets in Tacoma, will dedicate its new mural August 15th at 1:00 pm. Co-sponsoring the dedication will be the Tacoma-Pierce County Civic Arts Commission and the Metropolitan Parks District. The mural, entitled "Knowledge, The Key to Understanding" by Tacoma Artists Corps painter Robert Joyce, is nearly completed on the south interior wall of the Malcolm X Center. Joyce's mural depicts education as a multi-racial cooperative effort. The Center, a public youth facility operated by the Metropolitan Park District, is directed by Ms. Arvillia Johnson.

Mr. Joyce has taught Art for youth with several community groups including the UJAMAA Cultural Recreation Center and the Model Cities program. He won his first art scholarship in fourth grade and continued his interest in painting through High School. Since 1971 he has concentrated on portrait work and held several exhibits with art groups in Tacoma and is currently exhibiting his work with the Third World Bicentennial Form Art Exhibition.

Joyce's mural was funded by the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA), and the City of Tacoma, Gordon N. Johnston, Mayor; directed by the Tacoma-Pierce County Civic Arts Commission with the cooperation of the Metropolitan Parks District.

The Model Cities Executive Board approved use of remaining Model Cities funds to continue the housing program.

If approved by the City Council, the action would remove not needed for projects and administration and shift most of it to housing. The additional funds would allow Model Cities to rehabilitate some of the 45 homes now on a waiting list for loans or grants. No new applications for home rehabilitated are being accepted under the Model Cities program.

Some of the remaining funds will be used for final audits, evaluations, and close-out of the program as required by the Department of Housing and Urban Development.

The Executive Board also transferred funds from task force seminar-workshops and from board meeting expenses to provide enough money to pay task force meeting expenses through December, 1975.

December 31, 1975 will be the official end of the Model Cities program Most projects will end around that date, but the housing and Public Defender programs will continue into next year. The housing program will continue work on current Model Cities and Neighborhood Development home rehabilitations until work is completed on both programs. During this time, the staff will begin work on Community Development housing programs. Public Defender will continue through mid-1976 with a law and justice grant.

Something To Think About
BY Barbara Henderson

Everyone makes decisions at one time or another, and very often these decisions are difficult to make. We all have a choice to make and that is which way to go. Everyone wants to grow up and make it in this world. You can be successful and not have any riches like a big house and luxurious clothes, but somewhere along the line, people got the impression that having money is making it, which is a falsity. Success depends totally on the individuals definition of success.

Anyway, some people give themselves a goal and if they reach that goal then they succeed. There are so many roads to choose. There is a world outside full of confusion and chaos, it is up to you to stay away from it. We all must keep in mind that you are you and no one else - so make your own decision. Don't depend on others. DO WHAT YOU WANT TO DO FOR THIS IS YOUR LIFE!

Tee & Turf Home and Home East Side Men's Club

The Tee and Turf Golf Club travel to Seattle Saturday July 26, 1975 for the first Home and Home match with the East Side Men's Club. The course was in West Seattle with 25 of the members from Tacoma out for play. After a bit of delay the match was on.

A beautiful day with a little wind, the course was in very good shape. Advantage going to the East Side club since they had just played their annual tournament on the weekend before.

Some highlights of the day of the players of both clubs: Lancers with the low gross of the field 39-36..75, Hooper second with gross of 37-39 ..76, Wright was next with a gross of 39-38..77.

Wright made some very fine shots with birdies on No. 2,3,17, and 18. Low gross for the Tee and Turf Club was: Frank Snapp 39-37.76, Herbert Dailey 40-38..78.

Snapp started the back nine with an eagle 2 on the tenth hole and par on the next..after the 11th he lost control of the putter and three putted most of the way in.

Mr. Beaver a member of both clubs had to half his score to keep the peace.

Winner of the first match went to the East Side Club for 1975 a trophy to be held until next year when the two clubs will meet in Tacoma.

Mrs. Cunningham played very well for the type of course coming in with a 90. Mrs. Delaney also was there to add to the play.

See you on the first tee, 30th and 31st of August for the 2nd Annual Tee and Turf Invitational Golf Classic at Allenmore Golf Course in Tacoma, Wa.

The sports jamboree was conducted at Jefferson Park last Thursday, July 24, 1975 with various parts in competition against one another. Malcolm X was in the running, how far did they run? We are pleased to welcome back to our Center Mr. Sugar Ray Seales, on his return trip from the East Coast. Right on Sugar Ray!

The first regular field trip, Mon. July 28, 1975 to Dash Point State Park, leaving Malcolm X at 10:30 am, leaving Dash Point at 4:00 pm. Friday August 1, 1975 a trip to Northwest Trek, leaving Malcolm X at 9:15 am, leaving Northwest Trek at 2:00 pm. A reminder to the kids, be present not later than 15 minutes prior to departure time. We can still use some adult supervisors. We are still in need of any kind of musical instrument that anyone would like to donate.

Senior Day Planned for Broadway Plaza

Tacoma, Wash.

Area senior citizens will take over the Broadway Plaza for one day on August 7 to let Tacomans know what services are available to local seniors.

The fourth annual Senior Citizens Awareness Day, better known as SCAD, will begin at 11 a.m. and run to 3 p.m. with displays, lunch, a produce market, bake sale, and entertainment on the plaza.

If you enjoy dancing, then SCAD is the place to be. A group of wheelchair dancers heads a program that includes Japanese, Hawaiian, and square dancers. A number of bands and singing groups will give variety to the program with a comedian adding the lighter touch.

About 200 seniors from local rest homes will be brought to the plaza to participate in the activities. Several scout troops and other youths have volunteered to help the seniors in wheelchairs move around the plaza to see the various displays and entertainment.

Lunch will be served on the plaza for a $1 donation. The Progressive Seniors, Asberry Cultural Club, Junior Women's Club, Pacific Northwest Bell, and central area churches are helping provide the food and prepare the lunch.

SCAD is being organized by the Senior Services Center of the Department of Human Development. The seniors day was first organized to inform city officials of the needs of citizens. In successive years SCAD has tried to focus on the contribution of seniors to the community and has served to get nursing home seniors into the city. This year's program will show seniors and friends and relatives of seniors some of the services available through the Senior Services Center and other seniors programs.

COMING ATTRACTIONS

There used to be a TV show--a pale imitation of a British TV show that may still exist--called "That Was The Week That Was". That show tried to summarize things that had happened in the previous week in an irreverent, sometimes sarcastic and supposedly funny way.

Well, as far as I know no one has ever tried anything called "This Coming Weekend Is The Weekend That Might Be;" but if any Seattle sports fan were to plan such a show, this weekend we are about to embark on (or launch into or set sail on or whatever other nautical term you'd like to plagerize) would be an excellent first subject.

For, as far as a lot of things concerning the 1975 Unlimited Hydroplane season are concerned, this might indeed be The Weekend That Was.

Among other things, this might be the weekend boating's MCP's (oink, oink) get the apple stuffed in their mouths, for--because this is not a Gold Cup race, and thus first-time drivers can compete--it is possible that this weekend might see the first female driver of an unlimited hydro.

As pointed out in this column a couple of weeks ago, Mrs. Patricia Ciotta wants to drive a hydro, and the folks at Oberto Meats are willing to let her have a crack at their Salami Special boat. Mrs. Ciotta was barred from the Gold Cup race last weekend by a rule saying all competitors in a Gold Cup race must have raced before; maybe just as well, as the boat finished only two of the three heats it started last Sunday--both times dead last--with its male driver, Chuck Hickling.

Also this weekend may be decided who runs the races, the drivers or the referees. During last week's Gold Cup bout, the Weisfield's boat had some mechanical trouble in heat 1-A, slowing almost to a standstill; but driver Billy Schumacher was able to keep the boat going and finish. However, under a new rule instituted this [illegible] says "when a boat is not hydroplaning (i.e., actually riding over the water rather than in it) it must automatically pull off the course," referee Bill Newton slapped Schumacher with a fine and did not award Weisfield's the points it would normally have received for finishing the heat.

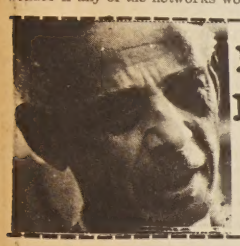
That original $100 fine was dropped; however, $500 fine slapped on Schumacher when the driver complained about the officiating, saying "I was on a plane!" Ref Newton has threatened Schumacher with a year's suspension if he complains too much; Schumacher in return has said Newton has "been on the job too long and made too many friends in the sport" to be an unbiased judge. Schumacher has also protested the $500 fine to the Unlimited racing commissioner, George Byers.

All the bickering may be incidental after this weekend, though. The 169 points that Weisfield's didn't get because of Newton's decision had the cumulative effect of costing Weisfield's the national point lead, which she had held for weeks now. Pay 'n Pak, the defending champion which got off to a horrendous start this year, took over the leadership with 5,864 points to Weisfield's 5,788 (that's a whole 76 point lead). It was the Pak's third straight win, coming in the seventh race of the season.

And for the Pak--and Weisfield's as well--that 76 point margin may prove vital, for it is looking more and more like the Seafair race this weekend may be the final race of the year. Originally, three more races were scheduled (for San Diego, Phoenix and Dallas); but various events are causing those cities to withdraw from the race business. Thus, this weekend Could Be It.

So This Coming Weekend That Might Be might be the most exciting Seafair in a long time. We might see the first woman driver, the first fist fight on the surface of Lake Washington (Schumacher vs. Newton); and the year's champion actually crowned after the race (and all the better that both Weisfield's and the Pak are Seattle boats).

It all sounds like a much better show than the old "That Was The Week That Was". I wonder if any of the networks would be interested in it as a series?



Ringside Northwest

Hi Boxing Fans -- If you want to know why it turned cold for a few days just blame me. It was so hot last Saturday and Sunday I decided to water the lawn and wash the car. Now you know when I do that you can count on rain and cold. That explains the weather for the last few days so now let me get on with the boxing news.

Since TOMMY HOWARD and I have been back from Honolulu the phone has not stopped ringing. We have had offers from all over the country but we feel that the Seattle fans are the ones that we would like to please. So right here let me tell you that TOMMY HOWARD fights his first main-event in his home town on August 12th. His opponent will be NICK PEOPLES, the young man that just knocked out John Colly last month. This promises to be a barnburner as both men can punch with power. Some people think I made a mistake in this one but I say HOWARD is ready for anyone and that's the way it has to be, all that can be said here is if TOMMY gets over PEOPLES then you will see a big name out here for him, and I do mean big name. At the same time there is another young fighter that has joined out stable by the name of ED RODGERS a junior-lightweight. This may be his first pro fight and it's nice that he can do it in his home territory. RODGERS is from Snohomish and I'm sure will create a little excitement in the boxing world, one thing I can tell you is these two fighters come to fight and I feel sorry for the men that are fighting them because if they are not in top shape then they are in deep trouble and I do mean trouble. I'll stop here but I do want you fans to make the date of Aug. 12th one to remember, I'm sure that you will see some action that you will remember for a long time. As one of the dailies wrote, TOMMY HOWARD is the most colorful fighter in the Northwest and I'm sure that ED RODGERS will be the same. So get your tickets early and enjoy the show. More next week. Human Relations Commission Report

At its August 7th meeting the Tacoma Human Relations Commission will consider a definition of "handicap" for proposal to the City Council and adoption into the City Ordinance Against Discrimination. The City presently has an Ordinance prohibiting discrimination in employment, housing and public accommodation that is directed at persons having a mental, sensory, or physical handicap when that handicap does not prevent proper work performance (in the case of employment).

The need for a definition of "handicap" is important to provide guidelines for Human Relations Investigators and employers and to provide a standardized base in approaching the problems of discrimination against handicapped citizens.

The definition has been developed by the City Manpower Handicap Specialists, Dean Martineau and Penny Zimmer, in cooperation with the City Attorney's office and David A. Goldberg, City EEO Officer. The proposed definition of sensory, mental and physical handicap is as follows:

Sensory Handicap: A sensory handicap is a substantial reduction in visual acuity, hearing or cutaneous sensation.

Mental Handicap: A mental handicap is an impairment to the normal process of thought and communication or learning ability which is substantial in degree. This includes impairment of I.Q. to less than 80, organic brain disorders, and psychoneurotic disorders as medically diagnosed.

Physical Handicap: A physical handicap is an impairment to the function of the muscular-skeletal, cutaneous, nervous, glandular, and/or circulatory systems, resulting significant abnormality of ability, appearance, strength, or endurance.

The condition of being or having been addicted to the use or abuse of alcohol or drugs, of being over-weight or under-weight, or of having been convicted of a crime do not in and of themselves qualify an individual as handicapped under this provision.

A doctor's statement may be required to verify the individual's handicap in the event of a dispute.

The intent of this provision shall not be construed to authorize discriminatory practices in favor of a person based solely on his/her handicap.

Interested parties are encouraged to attend and share their opinions at the Human Relations Commission meeting at 4:00 p.m., August 7, at Room 354 in the County City Building.

The draft definition is being circulated to local handicapped individuals, groups, and agencies for review and recommendation prior to the meeting.

Fun Festival in Broadway Plaza

On August 1-2, 1975 the Downtown Tacoma Association and downtown merchants will be sponsoring their sixth Annual Downtown Summer Fun Festival on the Broadway Plaza. The daily hours are Friday, 10:00 am to 9:00 pm and Saturday, 10:00 am to 5:30 pm. The entertainment for this festival includes J.P. Patches, Winnie the Pooh, a Foosball marathon, tug of war, karate exhibitions, hot air balloon, organ music, navy band, tacoma Scots Pipes & Drums, rock bands, and an exhibition of mountain climbing skills to take place on the Rhodes Building exterior.

Many displays have been arranged to include Fire Department Para Medics, diving equipment, sailboats, automobiles, plant demonstrations, voter registration, and the Tacoma Police Department Crime Prevention Bus.

Besides the local merchants with their sales tables there will be many craft items: jewelry, pots, plants, paintings, photography, pottery, statues, sculpture, flowers, old movie posters, pillow furniture, terrariums and much more.

During the past several years this has been one of our most popular events.

Referendum 29 Projects Approved

Olympia--Nine community-based social and health facilities have been approved for funding with Referendum 29 and other funds during fiscal 1975.

The Referendum 29 bond issue, which provided $25 million in bonds for projects throughout the state, was approved by Washington State voters at the 1972 general election as part of the Washington Futures program for community health rehabilitation facilities.

To date, $2,824,832 in Referendum funds have been approved for the nine projects. The total cost of the nine facilities is expected to be $8,820,838, with the balance coming from federal and local matching funds.

There are presently 55 other applications for facilities being processed by the State Department of Social and Health Services.

Citizens' committees in each of the Department of Social and Health Services regions developed a plan for utilizing the Referendum 29 funds. According to Ralph Littlestone, director of Planning and Research for DSHS, it was the first attempt in Washington to analyze the spectrum of human needs on a statewide basis.

The nine projects so far approved include: Skagit County Health Center, Mount Vernon; Spokane County Health Center, Spokane; Colville Tribes Multi-Service Center, Inchelium; Bellingham-Whatcom Health Center, Bellingham; East Pasco Multi-Service Center, Pasco; Makah Tribal Senior Citizens' Center, Neah Bay; Grant County group home for developmentally disabled adults, Moses Lake; Central Area Senior Center, Seattle; City of Bothell Senior Citizens' Center, Bothell.

It's Important To Know The Facts!

Thinking Out Loud

Gal, Girl Or Woman? That is the Question

by Edna Jackson

Have you ever attended a meeting where the speaker referred to the men in the audience as "boys"? Probably not! Have you had a speaker refer to the women in the audience as gals and girls? Probably so, which prompts me to talk about the gals and the girls. I personally dislike being referred to as a girl or gal but find that this is the common jargon in the Pacific Northwest. Maybe my dislike is fostered by being Black and from the South where Black men fifty years old used to be called "boys" by whites until some time in the sixties and you still find some older persons still referring to Black men as boys. So it seems that not only Blacks get called the "put-down" names but women too. "Girls" and "gals" to me connote the status of children who must be lead, guided and directed. And of course, "girl" has traditionally referred to a child or adolescent. This may be a consequence of the [illegible] of women being in jobs where they are guided or directed and women accept this as their role. Are you still a girl after you reach age sixty and must you be referred to by a 30 year old man as a girl? Seemingly, age if nothing else would eventually earn you the status of a woman. If males get to be called men after a certain age instead of "boys", why not women? The disheartening thing about the situation is that women most often refer to each other as "gals" and "girls". None of us like to be called "broads" which is what a lot of males refer to women as and we would be quick to let a man know that we are not broads. The next time you say "girl" or "gal" or are called that, give it some thought.

Survival- Who Should Provide?

Should social service programs be funded by government? Is it morally right for society to build roads and highways, while the low-income starve? Is it morally right to tax the haves to provide for the have-nots? Is it just for the rich to get richer, while the poor become poorer?

These are some of the anticipated questions which will be generated during the discussion at the Tacoma Urban League's Citizen Education Seminar I: "How Should Society be responsible for the Survival of all its People?" The seminar will be held August 9, at the Eastside Community Center, 1720 East 44th, beginning at 1:00 p.m. and concluding at 5:00 p.m.

Seminar I will be the first of four seminars on "Survival of the Citizen and the National Family: Who Should Provide?" The following seminars will deal with the history of citizen survival from 1776 to the Present; the provision of housing, food, education and health care for all citizens and the question of future alternatives.

These seminars will provide opportunities for all citizens to voice their opinions on issues, which may mean life or death to Blacks, other minorities, low-income and other disadvantaged citizens. You cannot afford to miss the opportunity to participate in these discussions.

All four seminars will be "Free" to the public. Babysitting and transportation will be provided by calling 383-3007 by August 7, 1975.

Photographer Hired

As Project Photographer Popken will document the progress of theTacoma Artists Corps projects and will handle all public relations photography.

Popken is a Liberal Arts Graduate of Washington State University and was a Teaching Assistant in the Department of Communications in his final year. He has directed and produced a film for the office of Student Affairs and was the principal cinematographer for the 30-minute color documentary on Expo '74 and the WSU pavilion viewed at the Spokane World's Fair.

Bil Moss Announces Council Candidacy

Bil Moss, Executive Director of the Tacoma office of Planned Parenthood of Pierce County, has announced plans to run for election for Tacoma City Council in District 3. If elected, she will be the first minority woman to serve on the City Council.

She is seeking the seat being vacated by her former husband, Harold Moss, who has announced that he will not seek re-election.

"Harold has done an excellent job," Bil stated. "However, I am running on my own merit. I feel I have the qualifications to do the job and can bring new insight and responsiveness to the Council." Councilman Moss is supporting her bid for election.

Mrs. Moss, as Planned Parenthood of Pierce County's first and only Executive Director, administers an office of 74 volunteer and staff medical, education and social service workers, develops and administers agency budget, and serves as advisor to the clinic's policy making boad board. She is the first and only minority female executive director of Planned Parenthood on the West Coast.

Mrs. Moss was formerly administrative secretary of Tacoma Y.W.C.A. She was also the first president of the Urban League Guild and past president of theTacoma chapter of LINKS, Inc., the Contessa Club and the Dr. E.E. Elmore Orthopedic Guild.

She currently serves as vice president of the Washington State Council on Family Planning, board member of Pierce County Health Council, and on the United Way Planning Committee and School Age Parents Advisory Committee.

Fair at Purdy

A "Purdy-Neat Crafts Fair" will be held at Purdy Treatment Center on August 2, 1975. This is the second such summer festival presented by the "Pee-Jays", a Jaycee Auxiliary sponsored group at the Center. The public is invited to attend this event from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. The Center is located six miles north of the Tacoma Narrows Bridge on Highway 16.

Residents have been busy putting the finishing touches on their creations. Ethnic jewelry, macrame, crochet, pottery, paintings, unusual stuffed toys, and decoupage are among the many attractive items which may be purchased.

Special entertainment will be provided by a band know as "Liza Fields" and the Children's Committee at the Center. Refreshments will also be available.

Several representatives of the Washington State Jaycee Auxiliaries of Region III are assisting with preparations for this event. This group helped spark the art festival idea during a monthly visit to Purdy. They have been instrumental in gathering many of the necessary arts and crafts supplies.

Proceeds from the sales will benefit the women at the Center. Some resident groups plan to combine their profits for future worthwhile projects.

For further information, contact Mrs. Barbara Lewis of the Auburn Jaycee Auxiliary or Mrs. Eleanor Green, Community Resource Coordinator at Purdy Treatment Center.
